

Lewis County Treasurer

January 18, 2017

From the Treasurer's Desk,

Our office is currently awaiting receipt of all levy certification from the Lewis County Assessor's office and we anticipate receipt any day now. Once this information is received, our office will begin the task of preparing the data for this year's tax statements. This process can take two to three weeks. It is our goal to have all of the 2017 tax statements in the mail to taxpayers by Valentine's Day. If you have not received a tax statement from our office by the end of February, we recommend that you check the Treasurer website at www.lewiscountwa.gov/treasurer or call our office at 360 740-1115 to find out if statements have indeed mailed and if so, why you have not received yours.

Once your statement has been received, please feel free to contact our office if you have any questions about the statement or assessed levy's and taxes.

Thank you,

Arny Davis
